NO INAUGURAL BALL FOURTH OF MARCH

Chairman Eustice Will Comply With Wishes of President-Elect.

WILSON COMMENDED.

None of the Letters Received by Him Criticise His Action in Eliminatng The Ball Feature.

Trenton, N. J., Jan. 20.—There will be no inaugural ball in connection with Woodrow Wilson's induction to office on March 4th.

Governor Wilson today gave out the following telegram from Chairman William E. Eustice of the inaugural committee which came for him after he had left his office here Friday evening:

"Your letter in reference to the omission of the inaugural ball has not reached me, but I hasten to assure you of our desire to comply with your wishes in every way."

Governor Wilson's mail this morning contained letters from all part of the country commending him for asking to have the ball eliminated. None of the more than fifty letters criticised him adversely, said his secretary.

GATHERING OF JEWISH NOTABLES.

Cincinnati, Jan. 20.—Cincinnati is witnessing the gathering of many notable Jews, who have come here to attend the XXIII Biennial Council of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations. The organization represents over 200 of the principal Jewish congregations of the United States, and is by far the most representative organization of its kind. The afternoon was marked by the meeting of the executive board.

The Union of American Hebrew Congregations holds a council every two years to examine and pass upon the work of its various departments. This particular meeting will be marked by the dedication of a group of new buildings erected to house the Hebrew Union College.

The XXIII Council will be opened this evening by a religious service in the stately Rockdale Avenue Temple.

Rabbi Abram Simon, of Washington, will offer the invocation.

The sessions will be resumed tomorrow morning at ten o'clock.

Gifts to Catholic Church.

Statistics just issued show that the Catholic Church in the United States received during the year 1912 personal contributions aggregating $500,000,000. One member of the Hebrew Church, Max Pam, a millionaire, not only established a school of journalism at Notre Dame University, Indiana, but also gave $25,000 to the Catholic University for a chair of antisocialist studies.

Secretary of State Philander C. Knox gave $500 to St. Regis' Home, in Pittsburgh. Archbishop Ireland recently received a check for $100,000 from J. J. Hill, founder of St. Paul's Seminary, to be used for that institution. His daughter, Miss Clara Hill, of St. Paul, gave $110,000 to the Visitation Sisters. Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, jr., donated a Catholic day home for children in San Francisco at a cost of $100,000. Mrs. Thomas F. Ryan recently gave the Sisters of the Holy Child Jesus property worth over $250,000. Her husband made the largest donation the Catholic Church has ever received in this country $1,000,000 for the Church of St. Jean Baptiste. Thel ate Michael Cudahy's executors gave $50,000 to the Apostolic Mission House at the Catholic University.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Mrs. John C. Shives, aged 25, was drowned in Potomac river at dam No. 6, above Hancock, Md., Saturday night while attempting to cross the stream in a 12-foot skiff with her father-in-law, Jacob Shives, aged about 60. The skiff was swept over the dam into the whirling waters below. Shives succeeded in saving himself, but he was injured, probably fatally, by coming in contact with rocks and stones. He also suffered from exposure.

At a fire believed to be of incendiary origin in a frame tenement house at Elizabeth, N. J., yesterday a woman and her two children were trapped on the third floor and burned to death, mortally, by jumping from a third-story window.

Rev. H. Percy Silver lacked two bishopric votes of enough to confirm his appointment as bishop, coadjutor of Kansas, it was announced in St. Louis yesterday by Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, presiding bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church of America, and the diocese of Kansas may now call the election null and proceed to a new choice. Of the 98 bishops canonically entitled to vote, 48 sent consents and 32 nonconsents. 50 consents were necessary to confirm the selection. The objection of the bishops to Dr. Silver is said to have been that he had been divorced from his wife.

Miss Mamie Wilson, for twenty years an employe of the Treasury Deparment, is returning to Washington from Rome, happy in her faith that a disease pronounced incurable by physicians has been banished from her by the touch of Piux X, according to a cable dispatch from Rome.

A lone robber rifled the mail car of Southern Railway passenger train No. 12 near Riverside, Ala., early yesterday and escaped with what are said to be valuable registered packages. Only one mail clerk was in the car, E. L. Cragmen, whom the robber cowed with a revolver. Officers who returned to Birmingham last night from the scene of today's robbery of a southern railway passenger train, said they knew the robber's name and had him located.

John Betts, aged 40 years, was shot and instantly killed yesterday morning at Milford, Del., by George Smith, who resides at the Betts house. Smith's mother, who kept house for Betts, was being choked by the latter when George, the woman's 18-year-old son, secured a pistol and pointing the weapon at Betts said: "If you don't release mother, I'll kill you on thes pot." Betts released his mother, but sprang upon the boy, trying to get possession of the pistol. In the wrangle Smith shot three times. One of the shots struck his sister in the side and the other his brother in the wrist. Seeing what had occurred, Betts began to release the boy, but when the opportunity presumed Smith fired the fatal shot, which struck Betts over the heart. Smith is in jail.

The Turkish government has decided to convene the National Assembly on Tuesday in order to take the Balkan situation under consideration. A serious quarrel occurred recently on the Turkish warships in the Dardanelles between some of the officers who were anxious to fight the Greeks and others who considered that the Turkish fleet was no match for the enemy. Blows were excahnged, and before the quarrel was settled 15 officers were wounded. The trouble arose through the circulation of a manifesto signed "The Women of Turkey," suggesting that the forts should sink the Turkish warships, whose poor-spirited officers always fled at the approach of the Greek fleet. It was because of this slur that the Hamidich made its adventurous cruise to Syra.

Trouble in Japan.

Tokio, Jan. 20.—Political revolution was threatened in Japan today when Count Taro Katsur, the new premier, scarcely well seated in the saddle, declared that he would at once form a new party and take aggressive steps to combat the Seisyukai the present dominant party in the empire.

As one result of the premier's declaration, the early resignation of his cabinet is threatened, and the dissolution of the Japanese Diet is a possibility.

PORTE CONSIDERS REPLY TO NOTE

May Cede Adrianople, But Insist on Retaining Aegean Islands.

YOUNG TURK FOR WAR

Report That Balkan Allies Have Delivered Ultimatum That Armistice Would Terminate in Two Weeks.

Constantinople, Jan. 20.—The Council of Ministers in session all day, further considering the Porte's proposed reply to the joint note of the powers. Greatly fatigued by their labors on Sunday, which lasted far into the night, the ministers were still divided on the advisability of adopting the reply to the powers drafted by Noradunghian Effendi, secretary for foreign affairs. He favored a flat refusal to give up Adrianople and the Aegean Islands lying near the Dardanelles straits.

The Grand Council of the empire, which the sultan has called for Tuesday, will take up the war situation and probably will have the last word in answering the powers, but the Porte desires to have ready some practical suggestions to submit to the council, and hence the activity of the ministers.

It is believed by those best informed that the Grand Council will favor peace and probably will counsel the cession of Adrianople as a trade for the Aegean Islands. This undoubtedly would cause serious friction among the allies. Adrianople would fall to Bulgaria, it being in that part of Turkey in Europe which is nearest the Bulgarian frontier, while it is Greece who demands the islands.

There are others though, who doubt that the council will take a pacific stand. The young Turks will be a power in the body that will convene tomorrow, and they are for more war. Fully 300,000 Turkish soldiers have have been brought over from Asia Minor, since the signing of the armistice and the war party may override Kiamil Pasha, the Grand Vizier, who is the foremost advocate of peace.

London, Jan. 20.—The military exports were at sixes and sevens today in their interpretations of the moves on the board of the Balkan-Turkish war game, and diplomats were hard put to figure out exactly what might be expected.

All of the Turkish and Balkan peace plenipotentiaries were yet in London, without definite instructions from their cabinets to do anything, and there was no sign of the early resumption of peace negotiations that Rechid Pasha, Dr. Daneff and M. Venizelos Turks, Bulgarians and Greek chiefs met last week.

The news from Constantinople that Noradunghian Effendi, foreign minister, favored the rejection of the advices conveyed in the powers' note to Turkey gave the alarmists some ground for pessimist, but the more hopeful believed that the peace party would prevail in the Turkish council.

Official advices from Athens stated that neither side suffered seriously in Saturday's naval engagement outside the Dardanelles.

The ambassadors and the peace envoys marked time while they awaited advices that would call them together, the former at the foreign office and the latter at St. James' Palace.

A news agency dispatch form Constantinople today said that representatives of the Balkan allies had delivered an ultimatum to the Porte, saying that the armistice would be terminated in fourteen days, were a peace agreement not made in the mean time, including the cession of Adrianople.

Fataly Injured by Maniac.

New York, Jan. 20.—A. M. Clark, a convalescent patient in the Smith Infirmary in Tomkinsville, Staten Island, attempted to escape from the window of the dormitory early today. When caught by John Donovan, a nurse, he turned on the attendant and cut his throat with a razor. Donovan is reported to be dying.

Clark was finally overpowered and placed in a restraint.

ANOTHER BLOW TO CITY

Plan to Abolish Custom House at Alexandria and Make it Branch of Washington Office

Troubles are generally dual, and while the great majority of our people are endeavoring to reconcile themselves to Judge Gordon's adverse decision to the city in her claims to adjoining territory, news comes that Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Curtis is considering a plan to abolish the custom house at this port and make it the tail to the Washington house.

During the past week or ten days considerable alarm has been caused in Norfolk by the announcement that the custom house of that port is about to be consolidated with that of Newport News and that the custom house at Cape Charles City was to become an adjunct of the Baltimore custom house. It was surmised at the time that this movement, which it was announced, was to be general throughout the country, would, sooner or later, cause trouble in Alexandria, and that a movement towards consolidating the Alexandria custom house with that of Washington was likely.

Such a movement is now in progress, and the Chamber of Commerce has received a letter from Hon. C. C. Carlin, Representative in Congress from this district, asking that organization do take immediate steps towards frustrating this design, if possible.

A meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce was held this morning and the matter referred to the committee on rivers and navigation, and they will work early and late towards retaining our custom house.

The committee consists of Messrs. George S. French, chairman, W. A. Smoot, jsr., Henry K. Field, W. M. Reardon and C. W. Wattles.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS.

Examinations announced by the local board of civil service examiners, to be hold in this city in February, follow. February 5-6 surveyor, male, age limit changed from twenty-one years or over; February 17, chief of the department of medicine, male, Philippine General Hospital, salary $4,000 a year; junior chemist in radio activity, male, salaries ranging from $1,080 to $1,440 a year; aid, male, division of graphic arts, National Museum, salary $75 a month; potographer, male, salary from $720 to $840 a year; nautical expert, male, salary, $1,000 a year; electrical assitant, male, salary, $1,080.

March 12-13 the commission will hold an examination for the position of assistant, men; teacher, men and women, industrial teacher, men, Philippine service, salaries ranging from $1,200 to $3,000 a year.

A COMPLAINT.

It will be a great convenience to persons residing in the neighborhood of Royal and Wilkes streets, patrons of the Washington Virginia Electric cars, if some form of shelter were provided by the Railway Company at that corner. Some complaints have been made that persons waiting for the cars at that corner are compelled to stand unprotected in the rain, as there is no form of shelter near Royal and Wilkes.

APPOINTED NATIONAL COUNCILOR.

J. R. Preston, secretary of the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce has been appointed National Councilor to the National Chamber of Commerce of the United States of America, which is an organization composed of most of the commercial bodies throughout the United States. The National Council will meet this afternoon at the New Willard, Washington, D. C., when the councilors, one from each commercial organization, will arange for the sessions of the national body which holds its annual meeting in Washington the 21st, 2nd and 23rd, of this month.

The councilers will prepare a program for this meeting, originate subjects for discussion by the speakers and make arrangements for selecting the nominating committee to make nominations for the entire board of directors.

Julian Y. Williams has been appointed a delegate from the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce.

STRIKE BRINGS FIERCE RIOTING

Nearly One Thousand Engage in Battle With Police in New York.

MANY ARE WOUNDED.

Police Reserves, Using Clubs, Charge Struggling, Screaming Mass of Men, Women and Children.

New York, Jan. 20.—Nearly one thousand strikers and strike breakers were engaged in a fierce riot today in front of a factory on Spring street. The trouble started when pickets posted by the striking garment workers stopped three guards and five strike-breakers coming out of the subway station en route to the factory and asked the strike-breakers to go to work.

A crowd of several hundred strikers and sympathizers gathered. The guards immediately attempted to club their way through the crowd to the factory. The strikers fought back. Reinforcements airrved from all sides and when fifty strike breakers working in the factory rushed out to rescue their fellows the fighting became determined and general.

A squad of police reserves charged the struggling screaming mass of men, women and children laying about them with their clubs, and cracking heads right and left. Eight strikers were badly hurt and were sent to the hospitals. Dozens of others received minor bruises and cuts. A dozen arrests were made.

The police are prepared for further trouble now that the colder weather has returned and the plight of the strikers is becoming daily more desperate. The manufacturers in the garment trade have begun to hire strike-breakers in large numbers, and this has inflammed the strikers and sympathizers.

GENERAL LEE'S BIRTHDAY.

Rev. William J. Morton, rector of Christ Church, yesterday morning, in a sermon, paid a glowing tribute to Gen. R. E. Lee, the occasion being the anniversary of General Lee's birthday. Among those atending were a number of members of R. E. Lee Camp, United Confederate Veterans' M. D. Camp Sons of Veterans, and others.

All arrangements have been completed for the annual banquet of R. E. Lee Camp, United Confederate Veterans, which will be held at Lee Camp Hall tonight. It is expected that he banquet will be atended by a large assemblage of veterans and sons of veterans.

The banks of this city were closed today in observance of Gen. Lee's birthday.

France and Spain.

Madrid, Jan. 20.—The election of the French premier, Raymond Poincare, to the presidency, may lead to a more friendly relation, perhaps even a mild sort of alliance, between France and Spain, it was believed in diplomatic circles here today. Optimists look for an "entente amicale" with a freedom of latitude as is at present in the "entente cordials" between France and Great Britain.

Some months ago Premier Poincare voiced a desire for such an understanding, in view of the fact that Spain and France were to be neighbors in Morocco as well as on the continent, and his sentiment was echoed by Count de Romanones, then prime minister of Spain.

Spain threatened by revolution that has for its goal, a republic, is said to desire as many friends and helpers as possible, and it is said, that King Alfonso would welcome overtures from the coming President Poincare.

To Fly Across Desert.

Paris, Jan. 20.—An aeroplane en route 1,425 miles long over the Sahara Desert in Africa is being planned to improve the transportation and mail facilities of that part of the world, it was learned today. Lieut. Col. Etienne, of the French army, is leaving out the proposed route, which will start at Biskra, a oasis in Algeria and extend to Timbuctoo.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Willard W. C. T. U., will meet tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock at 714 King street.

Catherine, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reece Caton, died at her parent's residence on South Lee street, this morning.

In the Corporation Court today a verdict for the defendant was rendered in the case of W. B. Doak vs. W. C. Baggett. The defendant had purchased a steer which was not delivered on the day specified.

In the Corporation Court today a final decree for divorce was entered in the case of Cecelia Speaks Dade vs. Casey Dade, by which the plaintiff was granted a divorce from the defendant.

DEATH OF OLD RESIDENT.

William E. Grady, an old and well-known citizen, died at the Alexandria Hospital at an early hour this morning. The deceased was 66 years old. He leaves a widow, so nand daughter.

Mr. Grady was for many years employed in the Alexandria cemeteries and for several years, up to 1895 was a member of the police force of this city. Since his retirement from the police force he has been employed in the street department.

POLICE COURT

(justice H. B. Caton, Presiding.

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

George Lancaster and Charles Dove, charged with fighting, were fined $5 each.

Frank Williams, charged with stealing a newspaper, was fined $5.00.

James Johnson, charged with disorderly conduct, forfeited his collateral by failing to appear.

Theophlus Elliotet, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

Fred Jones, colored, charged with gambling, was fined $20.

A white woman, charged with drawing a pistol on a young woman, was fined $5.

John Bryant, colored, charged with leaving the jail, was returned to that institution to serve the remainder of his term.

CARDINAL MIDGETS ORGANIZE.

The Cardinal Midgets Basket Ball team composed of Wilton Arrington, James Hasson, Owen Creegan, Louis Hoy, Russell Travers, Frank Fegan, Theron Hayden, Hollis Nugent, James Page, Charles Corbett, (Manager), and George Dobson, (Captain), whose average weight is eighy-five pounds, will play their first game next Saturday evening when they will play the junior teams from Gonzaga College. The Midgets are a fast bunch of lads who have been coached by the stars of the Cardinals Basket Ball teams, and no doubt will give a good account of themselves when they contest with teams in their class.

WEATHER THIS WEEK.

The week was to have been opened with a cold wave over the Northwest and Central West, according to the bulletin issued by the Weather Bureau yesterday. "It will extend into eastern Colorado, Kansas and the lower Missouri and upper Mississippi Valleys," says the bulletin, "and temperatures will also be low west of the Rocky Mountains. The cold wave will extend eastward and southeastward in modified form, reaching the Altantic and East Gulf states about the middle of the week and continuing for a day or two. There will be a reaction to nearly normal conditions over the Northwest and extreme West after Tuesday and over the Central West after the middle of the week.

A disturbance now over the upper Mississippi Valley and the Central Plain States will move eastward attended by rains and snows that will reach the Atlantic States by Tuesday or Tuesday night, and it will be followed by generally fair weather for a day or two. Another disturbance will probably appear over the extreme Northwest about the middle of the week. It will be attended by local snows and rains to the eastward and southeastward, reaching the Eastern States by the end of the week."

RISING WATERS SUBMERGE TOWNS

Ohio River and Tributaries Still Cause Considerable Damage.

FLEE TO HIGH GROUND.

Refugees Waiting For Waters to Recede—Relief Work Among Sufferers Carried on Earnestly.

Evansville, Ind., Jan. 20.—New territory including several towns was reported submerged by the rising waters of the Ohio and its tributaries today. Uniontown, Ky., Cypress, Ind., and Mowell, a local suburb, faced a serious flood, a majority of the inhabitants fleeing to a high ground or coming into Evansville.

It was raining hard today and a 30-mile wind is whipping the swollen Ohio river.

The river stage was 46.7 feet this morning and has been stationary since last evening.

There was practically no change in conditions today from Cincinnati to Cairo, the homeless in high towns or hill camps and the workers in the cities simply waiting for the waters to recede.

Relief work sent forward today on a stupendous scale all along the lower Ohio.

Columbus, O., Jan. 20.—Investigation of charges that Oral Best, 22, state hospital attendant, inflicted with a baseball bat injuries that caused the death of John Barnhart, 53, an insane patient, was begun today by Superintendent C. F. Gilliam. Best, who was discharged immediately, is under $600 bond. He contended tha Barnhart was injured in a fight with another patient.

Charged With Murder.

Haverhill, Mass., Jan. 20.—Following the death early today of Joseph H. Harris, a striking shoe worker, Charles A. Eaton, a strike breaker accused of shooting Harris, was re-arraigned in court on a charge of murder. Harris is from Brooklyn, N. Y. Eaton, following the shooting was arrested and liberated on $3,000 bail furnished by George W. Dobbins, of the robbins and Wetherill firm where a strike of United Shoe works is on. He was re-arrested before day break today at the home of relatives in Newburyport.

REAPPORTIONMENT LIKELY.

Numbers of Members of Council May be Reduced to Accord With Census.

The City Council of Alexandria will be called upon at the next meeting to be held on January 28th, to consider an ordinance fixing the number of members of Council and reapportioning them according to the population in each ward of the city. Council is required to take this action under section 1015-B of the Code of Virginia which provides that members of Council should be reappoioned in the year 1913 and every ten years afterwards. Authority is given under the law to have a special census made of the city to find the number of inhabitants in each ward or the last United States census may be used.

In view of the disagreement between the two boards of council and the split in the lower board between two factions the suggestion has been made that the number of members of Council should be reduced by one-half. It is claimed that the body will be less unwildly and that the business of the city would be better taken care of by a smaller number of men who would be able to arrive at conclusions more quickly and satisfactorily.

The announcement in Saturday's Gazette to the effect that Mrs. Henry O'Fanon Cooper would give a luncheon at her residence in this city today was incorrect.

Another style that is not Oriental, but distinctly Parisian, is known as the Aeroplane Hat.

Malines, braids, straws, and a fancy braid cloth are the materials used, with broad velvet bands that serve as brims in many cases. The head sizes are small instead of the former immense sizes.

The "pert, up-standing ornament directly in the front is the feature of the Oriental styles, while another model with a close fitting brim, elongated at the back, effect made still more pronounced by a long bow standing out at the back, is easily recognized as The "Aeroplane."

ROBBERIES.

Three watches, valued at $4, were stolen at an early hour this morning from the store window of J. Reece Caton, the news dealer. Nothing else was disturbed.

W. W. Simpson, lessee of the Braddock House, reports to the police that thieves Saturday night stole a chewing gum machine from in front of that place.

CHARGED WITH FIGHTING

One of the Belligerents Had His Nose Severely Bitten During the Affray

At a late hour Saturday night a fight occurred on Wolfe street, between Fairfax and Lee, between George Lancaster and Charles Dove, during which the former managed to get his teeth into the probiscous of Dove, and did not relax his hold until he had seriously injured that organ.

The fight awakend most people residing on the square, and yesterday it was the principal theme of conversation in the neighborhood.

Officer Gill later arrested the beliggerents and they appeared in the Police court this morning to answer the charge of disorderly conduct and fighting.

Dove appeared with strips of white cotton across his face and Lancaster with his shirt spattered with blood.

Dove in his defense stated that he had encountered Lancaster while in company with his (Doves) sister after he had warned him of the consequences of being found in her company, and the fight followed when he accosted the couple.

The sister, who has two children, and who is about to procure a divorce from her husband, on the ground of desertion and who proposes to marry Lancaster, stated that she had requested the latter to accompany her home Saturday night, as she was afraid to proceed thither alone.

Lancaster asserted that Dove had struc khim with a brick and he acted in self-defense. Dove denied this, and further stated that his sister, acting as an ally of Lancaster during the fight had caused him to come out second best.

Justice Caton fined the men $5 each. Dove's sister paid the assessment against Lancaster from a roll of money she said belonged to him.

FINED TWENTY DOLLARS.

Fred Jones, Colored, Arrested For Promoting Policy.

A white man was arrested last week for conducting policy in the southwestern part of the city. He plead guilty to the charge, and upon assuring the Police Court that he would put up the shutters and go out of business, was released upon paying the minimum fine of $20.

There was an echo of the case in the Police Court this morning. Fred Jones, colored, was placed in the dock after having been arrested by Chief Goods and Sergeant Wilkinson.

When taken into custody, a number of policy slips (rows of figures) were found upon the prisoner upon his return from a trip to Washington.

Jones was slow of speech when interrogated by Justice Caton, and but managed to say he formerly engaged in the policy business. He was fined $20.

Alexandrians Regret the Outcome of the Annexation Proceedings

The opinion of Judge Bennett T. Gordon, of Nelson, dismissing the suit of this city against the counties of Alexandria and Fairfax for the absorption of adjoining territory and refusing to give the city any claimed by it, published in full in the Gazette on Saturday, was read and reread by thousands. The decision was a surprise to those favoring annexation as well as to those who had combatted the movement, and it was hard for many to understand why certain sections against which the city has built—especially to the south and southwest of the city—should have been denied.

The bitterest opponents of the annexation movement believed that at least a portion of the territory asked for would be granted. The Union Station, West End and Rosemont, depended entirely on Alexandria for fire and police protection and also secure their gas, water and electricity from the city's plants. Practically all of the residents of the two suburbs are former Alexandrians who have moved from within the city limits, as they were unable to purchase property in town upon which they could erect modern residences.

No decision has been rendered by the officials of the city as to their future plans in the case. Under the law the city has the right to appeal the case to the Supreme Court of Virginia, and steps in this direction were taken yesterday, when Judge Gordon granted its attorney thirty days' time in which to formulate the appeal.

One of the most serious results of Judge Gordon's decision will be the delay in the erection of the new high school building. So confident were the members of the City Council and the school board that they would secure the territory asked for in the annexation proceedings that they purchased, about a year ago, seven acres of land, the greater part of which lies outside of the city limits, upon which it was the intention to erect the new high school buildng. Plans have already been prepared for the $40,000 for its construction is now pending in council.

The decision of Judge Gordon will make it necessary for the city to sell the property and secure another location for the school building. There is said to be no available lot within the present limits and it is believed that the authorties will find great difficulty in securing a suitable site.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving rememberance of JOHN E. WELSCH, who departed this life six years ago yesterday, January, 19, 1907.

God only knows when today six years
How my heart was filled with pain,
When He called away my son, so dear,
Who on earth I shall not see again.
But when the Almighty calls my name
And I go to my Heavenly home,
Then my son and I shall meet again,
Never more from each other to roam.
Gone but not forgotten.
—BY HIS MOTHER.

We are in the air on annexation, but we can annex a pair of shoes or boots or rubbers at Marshall's any time. No matter what the judge says.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

SENDS MESSAGES TO MOTHER.

Claude Allen Asks Sweetheart to Convey Them to "Woman of Woe."

Richmond, Jan. 20.—Miss Nellie Wissler, the mountain sweetheart of Claude Swanson Allen, on Saturday paid a final visit to the death cells to tell her lover good bye. On Friday the young woman, escorted by Victor Allen, spent one hour and thirty minutes in the underground vaults of the penitentiary where she and Claude conversed in minor tones of the sunny part amid the Carroll county hills and of the awful shadow which had subsequently fallen around their paths.

Miss Wissler told Claude how she had called upon Governor Mann and how the chief executive of the commonwealth had received her most kindly and conversed with her in a fatherly manner. She said that she had thanked his excellency for the last reprieve and tears stood in her eyes as she held out her hand to her lover and said: "I did all I could for you, Claude."

While the lovers were in conference a guard of the prison stood in the shadow, and never did his eyes leave them. By speaking in undertones there was some privacy to the conversation, but not for one moment did the steel-barred door turn on its hinges, or the grating of the iron cage move its barrier.

Miss Wissler said that Claude Allen had sent a few messages to his mother by her and that she did not think he was looking so well as when she had last seen him. She said that Floyd appeared more cheerful than she had expected to find him, but that confinement was telling upon both men and that Claude Allen looked paler than usual.

The young woman expressed very sincere appreciation for the gentle manner in which she had been received by Governor Mann yesterday, of whom she said: "The governor is a very nice and kind old man and I believe he wants to do what is right." I only pray that he will wait just a little, for I feel that the truth must come out sooner or later. I only hope that it will not come too late."

Miss Wissler said that she and Claude Allen had been schoolmates together until the young man went to college and she to a boarding school. After this they had become engaged to be married. The illness and death of her mother delayed the intended wedding and then came the tragedy at Hillsville. The evening that Claude was placed under arrest his sweetheart was awaiting him at her home, where he was to have gone by appointment.

LIKENED UNTO PONTIUS PILATE

Governor Threatened With Hell and Political Ruin Unless he Saves Allens.

Richmond, Jan. 20.—Unless Governor Mann extends clemency to the Allen murderers, he will be like unto Pontius Pilate of odious memory, advocate of the assassins' cause. He is to be held guilty of the blood of these just men.

This correspondent fails to recognize the essential difference. Pilate was the court of original jurisdiction, whereas the Governor is not a court at all.

But this is a fair sample of many letters reaching the Governor in this connection. The writers take the position that the statements of the Allens are to be accepted as true against all the heaped-up evidence of the score and a half of eye-witnesses who testified to the contrary.

Political perdition is the very least punishment to be dealt out to the Governor unless he commutes the sentences. Many letter writers threaten him with political extinction, and say that unless he extends clemency he will never again hold office in Virginia.

The manufactured sentiment does not hesitate to condemn the Governor to hell fire. His only hope for salvation is commutation, say the Allen sympathizers, who constitute themselves the judges of mankind. Unless he saves them, he will burn forever in lakes of brimstone.

Rev. Dr. Clark Improving.

Richmond, Jan. 20.—After having rested well during the night, the Rev. Dr. William Meade Clark, rector of St. James' Episcopal Church, and his daughter, Miss Emily Clark, who gave much of her blood to save her father's life after he had suffered three internal hemorrhages, are both reported as being better in St. Elizabeth's Hospital. Both patients seem more cheerful and greatly strengthened as a result of refreshing sleep.

The officers are: President, James W. Gerow; vice president, Randolph Harrison, and secretary, J. L. Nicholas.

BAY DEFENSES.

Artificial Island at Mouth of Chesapeake Abandoned.

As the result of a report made at the Army War College, plans for the proposed fortifications at the mouth of Chesapeake Bay have undergone some important alterations. On account of the increased range of modern armament, the idea of making an artificial island at the entrance of the bay has been abandoned, and it is now contemplated to confine the fortications to Cape Henry.

The latest project will provide for the construction of emplacements for eight 12-inch mortars, four 12-inch rifles, and four 6-inch rifles, the necessary mining structures, and fire-control and search light systems, at an estimated cost of $1,801,700.

It also is planned to quarter troops for these guns at Fort Monroe, Va., at an estimated cost for quarters of $300,000, and to transfer armament from less important points at a cost of $30,000.

It also has been suggested that on account of the increasing power of naval vessels which might attack the fortifications, it would be advisable to mount 16-inch guns instead of 12-inch, and that mortars of the model being constructed for the defense of the Panama Canal should be provided.

The total estimated cost of the project, along the lines now being considered, would be $3,614,700.

If the project is realized the Potomac river garrisons and fortificaions in the vicinity of Baltimore probably would be abandoned.

Raided Gambling House.

Lynchburg, Va., Jan. 20.—The police at 2 o'clock yesterday morning raided a gambling joint alleged to be run by M. J. Wall, the raid taking place with a game in progress. Ten men were caught, and the police captured a big pot and a considerable outfit.

ALLEGED HORSE THIEF.

Man Said to be Wanted at Charlottesville Arrested.

Detective Sergt. Edward J. Kelly yesterday detected a man, said to be wanted in Virginia in connection with a charge of horse stealing. The man had been arrested by central office detectives on a charge of grand larceny.

While the prisoner was under examination, Sergt. Kelly recalled having received a letter from the chief of police at Charlottesville, Va., giving a description of a man who was charged with stealing a horse from the stable of Prof. W. B. Allwood, a chemist, of Charlottesville, on December 12, 1912.

When Sergt. Kelly read the description contained in the letter, the police allege that it so clearly fitted Verlin that he confessed he was the man wanted. The prisoner also admitted, according to the officers, that he had robbed Quenrudon's trunk. He is said to have told o fgoing to Cincinnati after the trnuk robbery, thence to Hinton, W. Va., and from there to Lynchburg, Va., where he worked as a bartender. From that city he went late in November to Charlottesville, where he obtained employment as a janitor in the home of Prof. Allwood. He is said to have confessed he swapped the stolen horse for another with a farmer at Gilberts, Va.

Then ew horse, he said, he sold for $5 to a man he met on the road several miles north of Orange, Va. Verlin was taken to the First precinct station, where he probably will be held for the Virginia authorities.

Let us live while we are here and get the best out of life. Buy the best clothes and footwear. Speaking of the latter, is there any that half way compares with that Marshall keeps.

LIVERY STABLE BURNED.

Six Horses Killed in Charlottesville Fire.

Charlottesville, Va., Jan. 20.—The livery stable of Hudson Jenkins, was totally destroyed by fire at 2 o'clock yesterday morning, together with its contents, consisting of six horses, eight vehicles and a quantiy of harness, feed and tools. Several buggies and wagons belonging to private parties were also consumed. An effort was made to break in the main entrance, but one of the horses had fallen against the door and it could not be pushed open. The total loss is placed at $2,500, the stable being valued at $1,500 and the horses and vehicles at $1,000. There was an insurance of $1,200 on the stable.

Suicide of Young Man.

Staunton, Va., Jan. 20—Arthur L. Moorers, 20 years old, despondent over ill health, took several bichloride of mercury tablets Saturday afternoon in his parents' home in North Coalter street, and in less than an hour was dead.

He was the son of . K. Moorers and is survived by his parents, two sisters, and a brother. His home is only two doors from that of Ted Thomas, who committed suicide two months ago.

Eggleston to Succeed Barringer.

Richmond, Jan. 20.—That Joseph D. Eggleston will succeed Dr. Paul B. Barringer as president of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute is the opinion of those on the inside of the situation. It is understood that Mr. Eggleston is practically the unanimous choice of the nominating committee of the board of visitors of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, and is also favored by a sufficient number of other members of the board for his election to be practically assured.

The fact that Mr. Eggleston recently resigned as Superintendent of Public Instruction in Virginia to accept a position as field secretary of rural schools under the United States Bureau of Education lends added interest to the situation. The general impression is that he would accept the presidency of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute if it were tendered him. The latter position pays $5,000 per year.

Miss Gould's Wedding Gift.

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 20.—A jewelry firm here sent a handsome silver ice bowl to Miss Helen Gould Saturday as a wedding gift from the officers and enlisted men of the Atlanic submarine flotilla. On the bowl is engraved a submarine ship and the inscription, "United States Atlantic Submarine Flotilla."

The flotilla comprises ships of the C. D. and E. classes, with the Monitor, Tonopah, the gunboat Castine, and the tender Severn. The Atlantic battleship fleet will send Miss Gould a handsome present.

JUDGE GORDON'S DECISION.

The views of one learned member of the judicial fraternity have brought the people of Alexandria face to face with a most serious problem. In the first place, we do not propose to be discourteous to the ermine, and if we secretly feel more patience for the doctrine of the recall of judges than we have heretofore expressed, we do not intend to say so at this time. The time for exchanging idle banalities and empty courtesies, however, is past. The growth, progress and prosperity of Alexandria, have been checked and will be seriously hampered if the learned opinion handed down on Saturday is permitted to stand unreversed, and, therefore, for the purpose of this article, we propose to call a spade a spade, and if in doing so we are compelled to tread on somebody's toes, we are sorry.

We differ with the learned court in a number of points in his decision; we will enumerate a few as follows:

1st. The learned court is apparently of the opinion that the city of Alexandria has no right to take into her borders, the site recently purchased for high school and owned by the city, lying partly within the present city limits, and partly in the County of Alexandria. In this we differ with the learned court, from a standpoint of common horse sense.

2d. The learned court is of the opinion that a city of sixteen thousand people, contiguous to six railroads, can get along very well without a passenger or freight station, and the fact that such station is situated beyond our corporate limits, is no reason for annexation. Again we must respectfully differ with the learned court.

3rd. The learned courts admits that there is no available site in the present corporate limits where a handsome and expensive home could be built, but contends that there is still sufficient room for the building of cheap houses. Again we must dissent. It seems to us that the rich man is just as much entitled to a place to live as the poor man.

4th. The learned court says that there is nothing to indicate the growth of the outlying villages that drain into Hooff's Run is liable to be very great or that the use of Hooff's Run as an open sewer will be any more dangerous in the future than is has in the past. Again we must differ with the learned court, and say a word in defense of our hustling little sister city, Rosemont.. The evidence must show that four years ago, Rosemont was a cow pasture ,and if any place in Virginia ever grow more rapidly, we hardly think it came under the observation of the learned court.

The question now is what do the people of Alexandria propose to do? Can we from a business standpoin, afford to lie down under such an arraignment? We think not. To do so would be an admission that we are a finished city at the very time when prosperity and advancement are knocking at our door and asking opportunity to build us a greater Alexandria. The case is so strong that even the attorneys for the counties admitted that we were entitled to a portion of the territory claimed. There is but one thing for the city to do, that should be done without faltering. Take the case to the Court of appeals and at least make an effort to throw off the stigma of the opinion of the lower court.

HONOR ANNIVERSARY OF BIRTH OF GREAT VIRGINIAN.

Throughout the southern country, as is the annual custom, the anniversary of the birth of Robert E. Lee has been more or les sobserved. eYsterday, the 19th, was the day proper, but as it fell this year on Sunday, the festive feature of the occasion was postponed until today.

In many churches in the Southern States eulogies were delivered yesterday on the great chieftain, and tonight reunions of the remnants of the army of Northern Virginia will be held, when addresses will be delivered on the life and public services of the noble son of the Old Dominion.

Confederate veterans of Alexandria never let the occasion pass without participating in a reunion at which prominent representative men deliver eulogies upon Robert E. Lee. Everything has been made ready for the banquet and reunion tonight ,and the scenes around the festivce Board will be as interesting and inspirting as ever.

CEASE FIRING.

(Communicated.)

Grand Trunk Camp—114.

British Columbia, Jan. 14, 1913.

No book of the Christmas season has been more eagerly read or furnished more food for intelligent conversation than "Cease Firing,' 'by Mary Johnston. Owing to the discussion occasioned by differences of opinion, with regard to the "'Long Roll—the sequel to it "Cease Firing," already has a friendly as well as a hostile public waiting. But in spite of the fact that "Cease Firing" is written as boldly and with as honest intention of painting things as they were, it seems to have entirely disarmed criticism. While each scene is quivering with realism and the characters stand out with startling distinctness, even when only a few paragraphs are devoted to them, as is the case with the picture of General Forest, it is free from the defects that were criticised in the Long Roll. Indeed the book will come as a distinct surprise to Miss Johnston's most ardent admirers, for there is a depth and delicacy in the conception and handling of these incidents,that as gifted as Miss Johnston has been considered in the past, give her a new niche in the Hall of Fame. No less than a dozen battlefields are described—each with a vividness and charm that will come as a delight to the student of history. In the description of the First Battle, one would think her vocabulary had been exhausted, but each succeeding one is as full as the other, and so distinctly are the differences accentuated, that there is no more sense of sameness to the reader than to the men who fought on the different battlefields. The wealth of description reminds us of Creasy's "Seven Decisive Battles of the World" and the climax is reached with the Battle of Gettysburg, which can be likened to nothing else but Victor Hugo's immortal description of the Battle of Waterloo.

The love story, which humanizes even war, set like the Book of Ruth, between the bloody books of Kings and Judges, is a delightful relaxation and is like a breath from heaven, stealing over the war cursed country. The characters of Edward Cary and "Desaree" Gaillard, and their immortal love runs like a silver thread through the crimson cloth of war and is a classic in itself. "Paul and Virginia" translated into the language of the civil war. As one stands by and looks down at their silent bodies (you cannot call them dead or their end tragia), it seems the apotheosis of love and in its simple strength and beauty reminds us of that other husband and wife, whose love, triumphant even at the gates of death, as they stood upon the deck of the Titanic, awaiting to enter hand in hand,the joys of heaven. When Miss Johnston deals with love it is the height of art. Here is no need of hysterical rhapsodies or a discussion of the involved question of sex as seems to be inseparable these days in the effete degenerate problem stories of the 20th century. With such men as Miss Johnston portrays, and her women, their equal, in all it makes for character and ability, the association of the text takes its dignified and proper place, and one has a sense of completeness in the bringing together of these men and women. Just as she makes life beyond the grave, vivid in the death of

The Berlin Tageblatt prints a dispatch from Rome quoting an unarmed diplomatic representative of a great power in the Orient, who, in referring to the alleged outrages perpetrated upon the defenseless Turks of the Balkan States, says: "The number of those massacred is estimated at 240,000, and I consider that this number is not too high."

Aviators Ingedes and Macdonald were drowned in the Thames river near Gravesend, England, yesterday. The aeroplane pinned them beneath it when it fell into the water and they died before help could reach them. As the aeroplane struck the water the motor exploded and the two aviators were too stunned to make any effort to save themselves.

MRS. LARAMORE TELLS TROUBLES

Lady in Goodwater Describes Her Distressing Experience and Tells How She Was Finally Relieved.

Goodwater, Mo.—"Ever since I was a little girl," says Mrs. Riley Laramore, "I was a great sufferer from dyspepsia.

I suffered misery after eating, and had terrible heartburn.

I thought I had to suffer this way as long as I lived, but when I began to take Thedford's Black-Draught, in small doses, every night, the heartburn was all gone in a few days, and I could eat without distress.

I took two small packages in all, and although that was some time ago, the dyspepsia has not returned.

I speak a good word for Thedford's Black-Draught whenever I have the opportunity."

If eating causes distress, we urge you to try Thedford's Black-Draught. It cleanses the system, helps the stomach to digest its food, regulates the bowels, and stimulates the liver.

It acts gently and is without bad after-effects. Try it. Price 25c.

ALEXANDRIA PROOF.

Mrs. G. W. Davis, 107 Prince St., Alexandria, Va., says: "I owe my health to Doan's Kidney Pills. I have used them frequently during the past seven years and they have often brought me relief after everything else had failed. The doctors treated me for a long while and said my case was a severe one. I had undergone tortures from the complaint and often I was worn out. When I had almost given up hope, I took Doan's Kidney Pills. They have strengthened me and corrected the kidney trouble."

HEAVENLY MANSIONS IN FATHER'S HOUSE

Jesus Now Makes Ready For His Bible, the Church.

Places For Humanity and For the Angels of Various Degrees, Cherubim, Seraphim, Principalities and Powers, but None Previously Prepared For the Bride—She Is God's New Creation—Here to Be the Highest Place, the Divine Nature.

Buffalo, N. Y., 15.—We report one of Pastor Russell's discourses here today from the text, "In My Father's House are many mansions; * * * I go to prepare a place for you; * * * I will come again and receive you unto Myself."—John xiv, 2, 3.

The Heavenly Father "dwelleth not in temples made with hands." In the largest sense the whole Creation is His House, every apartment of which shall ultimately be peopled with holy, happy beings. "All the wicked will He destroy."—Psalm cxlv, 20.

Man's fallen condition is the result of heredity. God made Adam in His own image, perfect, upright, holy. Disobedience and sin have wrought mental, moral and physical infirmities, and "There is none righteous, no, not one." All are prone to sin "as the sparks to fly upward."

God provided Adam a mansion—the earth—Paradise. But sin (not unforeseen) brought Adam and his race under a death sentence. God chose to permit sin and death to reign during Six Great Days of a thousand years each, thus to give valuable lessons to both angels and men. He does not intend that this lesson shall work disadvantage to any. He has provided a great Redemption, which shows His sympathy for His creatures and the unchangeableness of His Law.

The Divine Program for dealing with this rebellious province is to be carried out by the Kingdom of Messiah, during the Seventh Great Thousand-year Day. Satan and every evil influence shall be restrained. "The Sun of Righteousness shall arise with healing in His beams," and the curse of death will be set aside. Man will be assisted toward righteousness and life everlasting by the interposition of the Kingdom for which we pray, "Thy Kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth, even as it is done in Heaven."

Humanity's Mansion—Perfected Earth.

At the close of Messiah's reign the "mansion" appropriated to Adam and his race will be fully released from the curse, and God's footstool will be a glorious Paradise. (Isaiah lx, 13.) All refusing the blessings of Messiah's Kingdom will be destroyed by the Second Death.—Acts iii, 23; Rev. xx, 14, 15

While there were places arranged in the Divine Plan for the angels, and for humanity, no habitation was perfected for the Church. This is because the Church is a New Creation.

Writing of these, St. John says: "The world knoweth us not, even as it knew Him not." St. Paul refers to this New Creation as the "ministers of God." All of these demonstrate their faith and obedience by walking the "narrow way" of self-sacrifice, "by faith and not by sight." To all of them it is declared, "Through much tribulation shall ye enter the Kingdom." But this class have the assurance that "all things work together for good to them"; that they "shall not be tempted above that they are able to bear."

This New Creation is "made a spectacle to angels and men"; God is giving the angels a great object lesson in connection with the development of this class. He is able to transform some of the mean things of this world into polished "jewels," "a royal diadem in the hands of thy God."—Malachi iii, 17; Isaiah lxii, 3.

Heavenly Mansion For Church.

St. Peter tells about the "mansion" designed for the Church, saying, "God hath given unto us [consecrated followers of Jesus] exceeding great and precious promises, that by these we might become partakers of the Divine nature."—II Peter i, 4.

Thus we see what it means to be members of the New Creation! "Eye hath not seen; ear hath not heard; neither have entered the human heart the things which God hath in reservation for them that love Him"—the choicest mansion, the highest place! As our Lord Jesus in His Resurrection ascended "far above angels," so will His Church, who will share His Resurrection, and be made "like Him," "see Him as He is," and share His glory.

The Master's death was for humanity in general, but its merit remained to be appropriated at the inauguration of His Kingdom. The whole world still "lieth in the Wicked One," until Christ makes satisfaction for their sins with the merit of His sacrifice.

Meantime, our Lord deals merely with His Church, as we read: "He appeared in the presence of God for us" (Hebrews ix, 24)—as the Church's Advocate, to make "satisfaction for our sins." The preparation in us and for us will be completed when the number is full—144,000. It is for us to comply with the conditions of our covenant of sacrifice and to "walk in His steps," thus to make our "calling and election sure," as members of the New Creation.

VALUABLE SCRAP BOOK

THAT ALWAYS USEFUL COLLECTION OF CLIPPINGS.

May Be Very Easily Made at Home—Appropriate Classification Will Save Time When Special Recipe Is Called For.

There are several ways to keep clippings, but the simplest for the average housekeeper is to put them in books under appropriate headings. Buy a large blank book or make one from heavy yellow paper, which can be bought by the wholesale, cut in any desired size. A little broader than the ordinary magazine is a convenient size to handle.

Cut the pages for thumb indexing, but instead of having letters represent the index make the spaces a little broader and put department heads. Thus for a recipe book have the different groups alphabetically arranged, as Aspics, Broths, Biscuits, Cakes, Custards, Drinks and so on in as many divisions as may be convenient.

It will be not only cheaper, but more satisfactory to make the book and bind it between cardboard covers. These should be punched with three or four holes and covered with either crash or a thin oilcloth that is easily kept clean.

At small cost the paper can be punched with similar holes, and the pages can be tied into the covers. In this way new pages can be added to each division as is necessary.

Instead of making a conglomerate book, it is well to start several. One on household hints, house furnishing, laundry notes and cleaning recipes would prove a boon in every home. In such a book one of the divisions could be classified advertisements that most women think they will test some time, but never can remember where they are to be found when wanted.

Another book on health and beauty clippings, care of the sick and nursing notes will prove useful, while no gardener who has ever had a classified collection of good garden clippings could ever be induced to part with it.

Lemon Pie.

Grated rind and juice of one large lemon. Put in mixing bowl, add pinch salt, butter size of a walnut, large cup sugar and beaten yolks of two eggs. Whip until light and creamy. When you begin to make pie have double boiler on stove and boiling water in the tea-kettle. Put heaping tablespoon of cornstarch into cup with enough cold water to dissolve it, empty into double boiler and pour on it immediately a cup of boiling water. Stir until clear and ready for the prepared mixture. Pour the mixture onto the cornstarch and let cook eight or ten minutes. Have crust baked and add filling. Frost with the following and brown nicely in oven:

Frosting.—Whip whites of two eggs stiff, add two tablespoons sugar. This reads as though it was a lot of work, but really is quite easy and always good. The filling will be quite thick after it has cooked the eight or ten minutes.

Uncooked Icing.

Uncooked icing is made by beating confectioners' sugar into the whites of eggs.

The rule is one egg for a small cake, two for a large one.

The average egg will take up from four to five ounces of sugar.

The egg should be beaten to a stiff froth and the sugar added gradually. A few drops of lemon juice will improve the color and the flavor. To prevent icing from running—when it is desired to ice the top only—dust the cake with flour. Brush off and proceed to ice.

Spice Cake.

One cup sugar, one egg, one cup milk, two tablespoons butter, two cups flour, two heaping teaspoonfuls baking powder, one-quarter teaspoonful salt, one-half teaspoonful cloves, one-half teaspoonful cinnamon, little nutmeg. Blend butter and sugar together, beat eggs well, add to butter and sugar, then the milk. Mix all the dry ingredients together, sift three times, mix with the butter, sugar, etc. If milk is sour use one even teaspoonful soda instead of baking powder; one cup of raisins if you choose.

Pepper Filling.

When you have a little beefsteak left over, chop it fine, mix it with rice, put in butter, pepper and salt and a mite of onions. This makes a delicate filling for stuffed peppers. Cut off the small end, clean out the seeds and fill them; bake them until the peppers are soft, but not until they lose their shape.

Ginger Loaf.

Place in a bowl a cup each of molasses and sour cream, and mix into this two rounding cups of flour sifted with two level teaspoonfuls of soda, the same of ginger and a little salt. Add a well beaten egg, mix thoroughly and bake.

Unique Fruit Cake.

One pound seeded dates, one pound seeded raisins, one pound uncooked prunes, one pound walnut meats, one pound almonds. Put all through meat chopper, mix thoroughly and press in a bread tin. Let stand forty-eight hours; delicious.

Good Light Dinner.

A rich and savory soup, with fried oysters and sweet corn cakes, makes a delightful and unusual dinner.

ALMOST EVERYTHING IN THIS

"Chop Suey" a Wonderful Mixture, Though If Properly Made It Is Palatable Dish.

The equivalent for "chop suey" in English is stew or hash—a mixture of various things. Hence there are as many kinds of this dish as cooks, almost. The superior sort is made of chicken, with mushrooms, bamboo shoots, etc.; the average, with sliced pork and celery, or celery, if the onion flavor is not liked, and the other ingredients indicated above. The Chinese way of cooking rice is to put a cupful or more of the washed grains into a dish that may be covered closely. Then an inch or two of cold water is poured in, the dish covered and put over the flames to boil. When the liquid bubbles up and oozes over the side of the dish it is quickly removed from the fire and set on the back of the stove to steam in its own heat. The Chinaman knows instinctively how much water is required to produce this first bubbling over. It must not be enough to cause the rice to turn over soggy. If rightly done—and the method is much simpler than it sounds, the cooking, steaming and drying of the rice are performed in one operation. The Chinese import almost everything that goes into chop suey, possibly even the chicken and pork in these cold storage days. At any rate, their dried mushrooms come in huge tin cans, also their wee potatoes, bamboo shoots and all that. The "sauce," or brown mixture in the shaker, is their salt in liquid form.

HOUSEHOLD QUESTIONS

To smooth an iron, plunge it while hot into cold water with a little soap in it.

Use very little bluing in washing laces, for the lace absorbs a great deal of blue.

Use boiling water when it first boils or the gases escape and the water becomes flat.

Never try to clean yokes, collars or cuffs while sewed on the gown. Such things should always be made detachable.

When hanging pictures be sure to keep them on an agreeable level with the eye. Pictures are meant to be looked at.

Tanned shoes should always have a professional polish put on before wearing; then scratches will affect only the surface.

Using Salted Pickles.

After taking your salted cucumbers from the brine in which they have been kept, soak them well in clean cold water for two or three days, changing the water several times during the interval. If they have become soft in the brine it will make them more firm and brittle to soak them from the second day in alum water, using an ounce to a gallon of water. It is commonly used hot at first. Leave them till they become firm, then take out, rinse well, and put into good strong vinegar. Have it spiced and sweetened as desired, using Chili peppers, peppercorns, bay leaves, mustard seed, and any spice or aromatic ingredients preferred. They should stand for a few days or a week before using, to give time for the vinegar to be absorbed.

To Wash Colored Embroidery.

To wash pieces of colored embroidery so that there will be less danger of the colors running, put a tablespoonful of powdered alum in the water you use, and use only the purest white soap to make a light lather, but do not apply it direct to the silk. If the latter is of good make it will come out bright and clean, with no fading or injury whatever, but when the color runs or blurs in the ground material, the remedy mentioned will usually make the washing safe. A tablespoonful of salt is also good for setting most bright colors and in any case tends to brighten and clear the color and will do no harm to the fabric.

Cheese Pudding.

Take eight ounces of flour and mix with a teaspoonful of baking powder, two ounces of butter, and an ounce of grated cheese. Wet and make into a stiff paste and line a pudding basin with it. Fill with butter beans, previously boiled and removed from their skins, add a small onion chopped, the pulp of a tomato, one ounce of butter, cut into pieces, and seasoning to taste. Moisten with the water in which the beans were boiled. Cover and steam for two hours.

Tomato Beef.

Sprinkle small piece of beef cut from the remains of a roast with salt, pepper and flour; put a layer of meat in a baking dish, over it put a layer of sliced fresh tomatoes and a sprinkle of onion chopped very fine, scatter bits of butter over it, cover with a layer of beef, then tomato. Make the top layer of bread crumbs and bits of butter. Bake slowly for an hour.

Potato Scones.

One pound of cold potatoes, one ounce of butter, two tablespoonfuls of milk, one-quarter pound of flour, one saltspoonful of salt. Boil and mash the potatoes, add the milk and butter, add salt and work in the flour. Roll it out thin, cut in rounds. Bake on on a hot floured griddle. Cook about three minutes on each side.

Eggs a La Fayette.

One slice of ham, one slice of chicken, one poached egg, mayonnaise, chopped olives. Serve cold.

If You Value Your Eyesight

You will equip your reading table with a Rayo Lamp

Authorities agree that a good kerosene oil lamp is the best for reading. The Rayo is the best oil lamp made, the result of years of scientific study. It gives a steady white light, clear, mellow. POLK MILLER IN

"Old Times Down South"

An evening of Old Plantation, and War Stories and Songs by Polk Miller assisted by Col. "Tom Barker" and Mr. Miller's famous QUARTETTE OF GENUINE OLD VIRGINIA NEGROES.

Mr. Miller tells stories of his boyhood days on a Virginia plantation, and gives humorous Sketches, Recitations and Dialect Stories and Songs, impersonating the old Southern Negro accompanying himself on the Banjo.

WHAT GENERAL FITZHUGH LEE SAID OF HIM:

"When Polk Miller is gone, the man who can best tell of the Old South will have passed away. He has no predecessor, has no contemporary, and will have no successor."

Two Full Hours of Mirth and Music

EDUCATIONAL, AND AS AMUSING TO CHILDREN As IT IS ENTERTAINING TO GROWN PEOPLE.

Songs, Stories, Dialects, Recitations, Banjo Picking, and the Harmonious Blending of the natural voices of Genuine negroes come in such quick succession you don't have time to get tired.

WHAT "MARK TWAIN' SAID:

"Those who failed to hear Polk Miller and his wonderful quartet at Carnegie Hall last night, missed about the only thing now left that is originally, and utterly American. I can never forget that pair of musical earthquakes—the Water melon Song, and Old Dan Tucker."

Polk Miller's Quartette

This quartette was organized by Mr. Polk Miller for use in his entertainment of "Old Times Down South." They are not such as are seen in vaudeville performances, and are not of the cake walkin' Dude variety, but the REAL THING! THEY IMITATE NOBODY! As to their voices, they are the sweet, though uncultivated results of nature, producing a harmony unequalled by the professional, and because natural, go straight to the hearts of the people.

WASHINGTON LETTER

Washington, Jan. 20.—The chances of Warrenton to get a new public building at the present session of Congress are very good. The House Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds is now preparing its bill which it hopes to have ready by February 1st. The course being pursued by the committee is that only one building shall go to each congressional district represented in the House by a Democrat and then only to such towns having a postal business whose receipts amount to $10,000 or more annually.

Representative Carlin has two public building bills before the comtee. One is to construct a postoffice at Warrenton and the other at Leesburg. In view of the fact that the committee is not going to give a member two buildings, it is the understanding that Warrenton is to be given the preference over Leesburg. This is due to the fact that the government owns a site at Warrenton whereas it has not at Leesburg.

Representative Hay, of Virginia, has bills pending before the committee for erecting buildings at Elkton and Luray. It is understood that Luray is to get Representative Hay's new building.

Miss Katherine A. Stuart, of Alexandria, National Field Agent for the Virginia Audubon Society, accompanied by Miss Green, also of Alexandria, were at the capital Saturday. Miss Stuart and Miss Green are very much interested in having enacted into law a bill introduced by Senator McLean to protect migratory game and insectivous birds in the Unied States.

General C. C. Vaughan of the Virginia State Militia at the Capitol Saturday accompanied by his adjutant, Major C. L. Wright. The Virginia militiamen were in Washington to secure accommodations for the house of the Old Dominion's state militia during the inauguration.

Senator McLean's bill places all migratory birds, such as wild geese, wild swans, brant, wild ducks, and snipe, all of which do not remain permanetnly within the borders of any state or territory, within the custody and protection of the federal government. The bill also authorizes the Department of Agriculture to adopt suitable regulations prescribing and fixing closed seasons for migratory birds.

What social ceremonies shall be held in connection with President Wilson's inauguration were to be decided at a meeting of the inaugural committee today. Chairman Eustice presided at a called session at which all outsiders were barred and the "suggestion" by Governor Wilson that there be no inaugural ball was up for discussion. The reason for the executive session, it was learned, was that a few committeemen desired to air their personal views at Wilson's eleventh-hour announcement against a ball. Disposition of the "guaranty fund" raised by capitol businessmen was also to be considered. Chairman Eustis has already wired the President-elect that it was the committee's desire "to comply with all your wishes" it was taken as a foregone conclusion that the ball plan will be abandoned.

General Blanco, commander of the Mexican Federal forces in northern Mexico, was reported missing in the State Department dispatches today, although rumors of his capture and execution by rebels were unconfirmed. Reports from Jaurez today said that the lines of the National Railway have been damaged by the revolutionists. Conditions in the Ensenada districts were reported improved and no further outbreaks were expected.

The advance guard of boys, notable in their respective states of more of corn per acre. Priminent ning corn growers arrived in Washington today. They will receive special recognition from the Department of Agriculture and take part in a special program for them tomorrow. Each of the youthful agriculturists have produced one hundred bushels or more of corn per acre. Prominent among them is Ben Leath, Kensington, Ga., who won the state prize by producing 214 1-2 bushels of corn on his acre and sold it for nearly $3 a bushel.

"No. inaugural ball" was the vote of the inaugural committee here today. President-elect Wilson's expressed desire to abandon the society function that has been a feature of the induction into office of every executive since Madison, was acquiesced in by the local committee, at an executive session.

Rumors of renewed political unrest n Cuba were received at the State Department today. It was reported that a movement is on foot to secure the annulment of the recent election hrough the Cuban courts. There also s in evidence of considerable discontent among the negro element involved in the revolution of last summer, some of whom threaten to renew the hostilities to provoke American intervention. It was reported also that the discontented liberal element are active.

Revocation of an important rate order of the interstate commerce commission by the commerce court was held not justified by the supreme court of the United States today. The commerce court unllified action of the Commission in reducing freight rates on the Louisville and Nashville railroad from New Orleans to Mobile and Pensacola. The government acting for the commission appealed to the Supreme Court.

Chimpanze Sick.

New York, Jan. 20.—Baldy the far famed Chimpanze of the Bronx Zoo is an extremely "sick man" today and director Hornaday and all the keeper sare playing nurse. He has the Riggs disease and Dr. W. Read Blair, the noted veterinary is his prescribing physician.

Should Baldy succumb to the Riggs he would be mourned all over the country.

Thousands of viitors have called on him annually while millions of postcards bearing his photograph have been sold. He is considered the smartest chimpanze in captivity and show men have offered the zoo thousands of dollars for the privilege of exhibiting him.

Edward Cary and "Deseree," so the much discussed question of marriage is seen from a very different angle from that of the scoffers of the present day.

The wealth of classical and historic reference and illustration mark Miss Johnston as a ripe scholar. Indeed, when you consider, in addition to these, the amount of minute technical knowledge and the intimate geographical data, one cannot but stand aghast at the amount of mental effort Miss Johnston has put forth. Although full of love of the South, Miss Johnston's story is free from partisan bitterness. Even the unbiased, retailing, by a Southern author of Sherman's march to the sea—which depicts the desolation left in its wake—does full justice to the indominitable spirit of this office. He had a work to perform, an end to accomplish and his drastic measures leaving a trail of destruction, were necessary to the successful culmination of his campaign. He himself expressed its horrors by this remark: "War is Hell."

To show how far reaching the interest in which is felt in Miss Johnston's books, two copies of it were sent to me here by friends in British Columbia, each of whom were over four hundred miles away from the nearest city and one hundred and fifty miles from the "end of the steel," and yet so deep was their interest in Miss Johnston's work that they had been among the first to get a copy of her new book.

At first there was a feeling of disappointment that Miss Johnston did not more thoroughly enter into the life of General Robert E. Lee. The chapter devoted to him largely made up of quotations from John Wise. Now that she has given such a complete picture in the "Long Roll" of General Jackson and in "Cease Firing" of General Joseph E. Johnson, we think that she should write a third book, dealing specifically with General Lee—the surrender and the return of the soldiers to their homes thus making a wonderful triology covering the principal characters and scenes of the Civil War.

Shepard-Gould Wedding.

Tarytown, N. Y., Jan. 20.—Preparations for the wedding of Helen Miller Gould and Filey J. Shepard in the great drawing room of Miss Gould's country home, Lyndhurst, Wednesday, were completed today. The arrangements were of the simplest character as Miss Gould had determined there shoul dbe no pomp or display.

In keeping with her plans to make the wedding ceremony take on a rural simplicity in accordance with its rural surroundings, Miss Gould has engaged Rev. Daniel Russell, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, at Irvington, to read the service, instead of her own city pastor, the Rev. Anthony J. Evans, who will be present only in an unofficial capacity.

The bride will be attended only by her two little nieces, Helen and Dorothy Gould, daughters of her youngest brother, Frank Gould. When Gould and his first wife, Helen Kelly Gould, were first divorced and Mrs. Gould was remarrried, the children were taken over by Miss Gould, and have lived with her ever since.

There will be no elaborate floral decorations. The only feature of the wedding upon which Miss Gould has permitted more than ordinary outlay is the music, which will be rendered by an orchestra of forty pieces. The entrance march will be Lohengrin and the recessional will be Mendelssohn's setting to a "Midsummer Night's Dream". There will be other selections from Handel, Wagner, Massenet, Schumann, Godard and Elgar, the orchestra continuing to play through the wedding breakfast that will follow the ceremony.

Miss Gould will be led to the altar by her eldest brother, George J. Gould. The groom will be attended by his brother, Louis J. Shepard. The wedding party will be only members of the family and a few intimate friends. Miss Gould's brother-in-law and her younger sister, the Duke and Duchess de Tallyrand Perigord arrived in New York yesterday on the Mauretania to attend the wedding.

Sullivan is Sentenced.

New York, Jan. 20.—David A. Sullivan, who was convicted of appropriating $20,000 for his own use while president of the defunct Union Bank, of Brooklyn, was today sentenced to serve an undeterminate term of from two to four years and three months in Sing Sing prison by Supreme Court Justice Crane in Brooklyn Supreme Court. Brock R. Shars, who was president of the Borough Bank, was sentenced to serve three months in the penitentiary on a charge of grand larceny.
